Agent for the RICHARDSON & HOYNTON COMPANY'S Furnaces. Established in 1846. About eighteen years ago I received a hurt in my back from a pile of lumber falling on me, and ever since had been troubled with weak kidneys more or less, and the last year very much.

Through the recommendation of Henry Keene, I bought a bottle of H. W. Cox's Oregon Peach Bitters and before I had taken half the bottle I found a great relief from it. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for the kidneys, and heartily recommend it for the same. J. H. PORTER, Aumsville, January 12, 1888.

PACIFIC COAST NAVAL STATION. Admiral Porter Endorses Senator Mitchell's Coast Defense Scheme.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—In reference to the resolution presented in the senate a few days ago by Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, providing for the appointment of a commission, to be composed of three competent naval officers, whose duty it should be to make a careful examination of the North Pacific coast and select a site for a naval station, Admiral Porter, first admiral of the navy, has written a letter to Senator Mitchell endorsing the proposition to establish strong and complete navy yard and station at Port Townsend, on Puget Sound.

The secretary of the navy, while approving of the manner in which the work is to be done, gives little encouragement to the scheme. Michigan Boundary Line in Doubt. DETROIT, March 21.—Frank Egan, deputy secretary of state of Michigan, has gone to Washington on business concerning the boundary line between Michigan and Canada.

Recent correspondence of the state authorities with Secretary Bayard indicates that the present accepted boundary line is erroneous. The doubtful territory covers valuable fishing grounds along Sault river and the ship canal, and at St. Clair.

Schooner and Crew Lost. BALTIMORE, (Md.), March 21.—The bark Serene, Captain Segerman, arrived here to-day with the captain and mate of the schooner Florence Rogers, with which the bark was in collision Monday night during a terrible gale. A hurricane swept the sinking schooner away in the darkness, and it is feared that the remainder of her crew were drowned.

Texas Gets a Blast. BONHAM (Texas), Mar. 21.—A severe snow storm has been raging here the past twenty four hours. Travel is badly interrupted, and it is feared that the fruit crop will be ruined.

Will be Jerked to Eternity. TACOMA, Mar. 21.—Wm. Martin, convicted of the murder of Fred Nettzell, a brewer, on the night of December 22d last, was sentenced this morning to be hanged April 27th.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 11th day of April, A. D. 1888, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following officers, to-wit: Representative in congress, three presidential electors, supreme judge and district officers, and to select six delegates to attend the national republican convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The convention will consist of 209 delegates, apportioned among the several counties as follows:

Table with 3 columns: County, Delegates, Total. Baker 5, Lake 2, Benton 7, Lane 10, Clatsop 9, Malheur 10, Columbia 4, Marion 14, Coos 7, Morrow 5, Crook 3, Multnomah 30, Curry 3, Polk 6, Douglas 9, Tillamook 3, Gilliam 5, Umatilla 10, Grant 9, Union 8, Jackson 7, Wallowa 4, Josephine 4, Wasco 9, Klamath 3, Washington 8, Yamhill 9.

The same being one delegate at large from each county and one delegate for every 150 voters and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Hon. Binger Hermann, congressman, at the last general election. The committee recommend that the primaries be held March 31, 1888, and the county conventions April 4, 1888, unless otherwise ordered by the county central committee.

Republican electors and voters of the state, without regard to past political affiliations, who believe in the American principle of protective tariff and dignifying American labor, giving free, popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the republican state convention. Respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH SIMON, Chairman. LETTER LIST. Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice, at Salem, Oregon, March 21, 1888. Parties calling for them will please say "advertised."

Now is the Time. Now that the political campaign is approaching it is reasonable time to subscribe for the CAPITAL JOURNAL. It will contain full reports of all political conventions, meetings and elections, and a cordial discussion of the questions at issue, and will be delivered anywhere in the city for 15 cents per week, or will be sent by mail for $5 per year. Leave orders at this office or with the route agent.

MORNING TELEGRAMS. An Ohio Boy Wins an English Scholarship. COL. J. B. MONTGOMERY interviewed in New York on the Political Situation.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Colonel J. B. Montgomery, of Portland, Oregon, is in the city. In speaking of California, he said the advancement of that state is like a page taken from the Arabian Nights. About the political situation, he says that if there is to be a dark horse in the republican convention, the Pacific Coast states will vote for General Miles, and if the republicans nominate a pro-Chinese candidate he cannot carry the Pacific Coast and slope. Blaine, he says, leads all competitors for popular favor on the republican side. Delegates to the national republican convention from Oregon will go to Chicago uninvited. Oregon raised 15,000,000 pounds of wool last year, and Cleveland's policy would paralyze this industry. Oregon is opposed to Cleveland also because of his position toward the river and harbor appropriation bill.

American Boy on Top. LONDON, March 20.—Gordon Hughes, an Ohio boy, and a son of the American Consul at Birmingham, has won, in competition with fifty-two others, a Cambridge scholarship worth $2000. He was sick in bed and his answers were taken down by a stenographer.

PACIFIC COAST. Hand Badly Mutilated. ASTORIA, March 20.—A man, whose name could not be ascertained, had his left hand terribly mutilated in J. C. Trullinger's mill this afternoon. Dr. J. A. Fulton dressed the wounded member.

Sugar Surplus. SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The American Sugar Refinery Company has chartered the ship Arabia at the reported rate of $4.50 per short ton to load a cargo of raw sugar for New York. She will load at once, and as she is quite large, the vessel registering 2024 tons, she will be able to take away about 3000 tons of the expected surplus of 60,000 tons.

The Swalm-McDonald Case. SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The prosecution made the opening statement to-day in the case of Seneca Swalm, charged with appropriating $3850 worth of jewelry belonging to Clara Belle McDonald's husband. The attorney said he proposed to show that improper conduct had existed between Swalm and Mrs. McDonald in Los Angeles and in this city, and that Swalm's whole object was to plunder Clara Belle.

New Freight Schedule. SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The traffic manager of the Pacific mail company is still engaged in the preparation of a new freight schedule which is to govern the shipment of merchandise to and from all Central American and Mexican ports over the company's lines. He contemplates advancing the rate from 5 to 10 per cent, and when the new rate sheet is issued it is the intention that it shall be permanent. It will go into effect before the 25th inst.

A saw mill is to be erected at Tacoma by a company with $500,000 capital. Its capacity will be 120,000 feet in ten hours. James H. Faulkner, of Olympia, won a wrestling match at San Francisco yesterday with Peter Schumacher for a purse of $1,500. John P. King, the oldest living ex-United States Senator, died in New York Monday. He was born in Warren county, Kentucky, April 3, 1799.
